

Randy Hale, President
Hale & Hearty, Inc.

Randy Hale began his production career by building scenery for The Dolly Parton Show, Hee Haw, Marty Robbins, and others circa 1975. From there, he transitioned into producing, directing, shooting, and editing projects for various clients such as The Nashville Network (TNN), Garth Brooks Entertainment, Home & Garden Television (HGTV), Saturn, and Time Life.

Having owned an Avid for over 20 years, Randy has edited various projects ranging from EPKs to feature films.

His editing projects include Live at the Bluebird Cafe (Season 1), Controversy for CMT, a reality show for the America's Junior Miss pageant and various EPKs for artists such as Garth Brooks, Carrie Underwood, and Travis Tritt. Randy also worked on as well as edited the very first home improvement/sitcom for HGTV called Klutz Around the House.

With several feature films to his credit, Randy has worked as Avid Supervisor on Existo, and Editor on Joe & Joe, which played at the Sundance Film Festival, won technical excellence awards, and was distributed by Miramax. He also served as Post Production Supervisor on the film, No Regrets, which starred Janine Turner and Kate Jackson, and aired on Lifetime Television.

Randy also works as a Director of Photography and Camera Operator on many projects, ranging from commercial work, to music projects, to reality shows. Some recent reality show work includes Project Runway, The Voice, School Pride, Survivor (post-show interview stateside), Nashville Star, American Idol auditions, America's Got Talent, Nashville, Brat Camp, and The Biggest Loser.

Along with reality-based programming, Randy also shoots many music-related projects, EPKs and artist interviews. His credits have included Carrie Underwood, Blake Shelton, Garth Brooks, Reba McEntire and Sheryl Crow, to name a few.

His behind the Scenes feature work includes Miley Cyrus' film, Hannah Montana, and Nicole Kidman's feature film, Stoker – a thriller.

Another area of interest is documentaries. Randy's Directorial and Director of Photography credits include Break the Cycle, which brought to light the adult illiteracy problem in the U.S., as well as Circle of Dreams, a film that captured the emotional triumph of 15 people who hiked the entire 2,100-mile Appalachian trail together.

In addition to entertainment-based projects, Randy has enjoyed collaborating on corporate, educational, and training films. Of note are science and medical-related subject matter for such clients as Discovery Channel, PBS, and Vanderbilt University. The History of Cardiac Surgery is one project that Randy has enjoyed in particular. It is a multi-volume, ongoing project in conjunction with Vanderbilt University, which documents the lives of the pioneers in cardiac surgery.

Randy Hale is a true filmmaker who knows all aspects of TV and film production. He also possesses a great business sense, marketing instincts, and creativity, which help ensure success for any project in which he becomes involved.
